Dear Florence

You've certainly proved yourself a wonderful student and I know you will be a success in life.
Sincerely, Audrey Radtke

Dear Florence
I was sure a nice class was all waiting one day did have fun. Love to you all.

Dear Florence:
Eric's little girl is a sweet little girl. Are you still going with her? I don't want to invite you to your wedding.
Gladys

Dear Florence
Best of luck to you

Dear Florence:

I have been from nothing next to you in some ways. I hope that you have a good of luck in the future. Also don't forget to do all your schoolwork. Hope you enjoy your job.

Dear Florence:

It's really a hard signing a book for a person who has an average that you have. I wish you the best of luck & happiness in the world, but I know that you will get it with your personality.

Dear Florence!
I've known you for many, many years and
I'm not a bit sorry.
Remember when we used to make use of that wonderful saving on your porch? What did we do there? Don't tell anyone. Loads of Luck and happiness to you.

Martha Moore

Dear Florence

You sure were a whiz in Off. Prac.
How did you do it.
Congrat. for getting

There is something about the way you do things. I hope you are happy.

Hello Florence
You were really a swell monitor.
It sure was a pleasure to be in your study hall.
I wish you were returning back
next fall because I'll sort of be missing you.
I hope you have a grand time
this summer.
When I start school
in the fall, I want
you a lot of success.
Keep up the good work
and I know you'll succeed.

In Memoriam

GEORGE A. CHAMBERLAIN

George A. Chamberlain had that prime essential of a great teacher and a great man — the ability to leave an enduring influence for good upon the lives of those with whom he came into contact. Generations of Riverside graduates remember him as a principal whose discipline was firm but who never failed to give credit where it was due and to administer justice tempered with kindness and mercy. The qualities of sound scholarship and good sportsmanship instilled by him helped many a young man and young woman to find a place in life as a good citizen, an asset to the community. May his memory and example live long in the annals of Riverside and in the hearts of those who were privileged to know him or who, in later years, have benefited by the enduring results of his farsighted leadership.

Clifford P. Marchese, Riverside '21

The Milwaukee High School
 Northwest Corner of Van Buren and Division
 (East Juneau Avenue) Streets
 Mr. Chamberlain served there as instructor in physics.

"For him who in the love of Nature holds
 Communion with her visible
 forms, she speaks
 A various language."

East Division High School
 Northeast Corner of Cass and Knapp Streets
 Mr. Chamberlain became principal in 1903, continuing as principal of Riverside High School
 from 1915 to his retirement in 1937.

LEWIS F. BAKER

For over thirty years Lewis F. Baker was a vital part of Riverside, first as head of the business department and later as vice principal. Aert, efficient, and possessed of a keen sense of humor and understanding of his fellow men, he related his personality in the life of the school. Strict and exacting in his teaching, keen and discerning in his disciplinary assignment, thorough in his administrative responsibilities, he made Riverside students and faculty feel the respect and influence of an unusual man and injected zest and vigor into the school routine.

As the years wore on and discipline gravitated more and more to his office, he might have been regarded as the "trouble-shooter" for the school. But whether he treated students gently, or with the sternest of iron-hand methods, an enduring monument to his broad understanding and ability has been the permanent return of these recalcitrant students in later years to express their appreciation for his setting them on the right track.

His activity, from the playing of an athletic test to the investment of his time, had his loyal interest and support.

He required the students a high standard of conduct, and all who came in contact with him were influenced by his vibrant and forceful personality.

MARY K. HOWE

Mrs. Howe personified the ideal of what a teacher should be. Thorough, considerate, conscientious almost to a fault, she made her teaching a living thing. Her hope was to endue young people with a love of the fine and beautiful not only in literature but in life. She wanted her students to live fully, thoughtfully. Through her interpretation of literature they lived thus vicariously, for through her eyes they saw a vision of what life could be.

Her sympathy and understanding, her willingness to give of her time and energy to those who sought her counsel were an inspiration to students and faculty. She gave generously of her talent. But there was in her a vein of iron which did not permit the slothful and the careless. Youth must be inspired with a love of perfection, must be taught to see beauty in order. She set high standards. In their earnest attempt to reach them, her students have paid her the greatest honor. They loved her while she was their teacher, but they will feel the impact of her personality and the inspiration of her teaching all the days of their lives.

Certainly she could say with the Apostle Paul: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished the course. I have kept the Faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness."

A black and white photograph of a group of young women in a room, possibly a classroom or a social gathering. One woman is seated at a table, and others are standing around her. The image is grainy and has a vintage feel.

You, who shoulder the burden of producing a school annual, will find a full measure of joy and satisfaction in working with the Mandel organization. Here you will always find a spirit of friendliness, competent and unswerving counsel, and Wisconsin's largest corps of artists and engraving artisans anxious to do everything to make your work an outstanding achievement. To do nothing short of the best has been the Mandel ideal for more than half a century.

Dearest Flo, My One & Only,

Well we finally made it didn't we?
We have had fun but not enough of it. We simply must make our plans come true!!!

I loved those delicious rides to the lake front. Especially when I was the odd number. Very interesting!!!

Don't forget. We go home on our wedding cake. Not from Seinemann!! I can hardly wait! Really!

I wish we could double date sometime, but when can we get our one & only together at the same time?
I'll have to grin & bear it!!!

I simply must go to the "X". I have never seen such an active club. So so. And those teas they have, delicious!

Well my sweet I have to leave you now. my pen is running dry. But that's not the real reason really!!
I simply haven't a rather short to write.

Love & kisses
